

Mission:

The National Telecommunications Commission (NTC) shall maintain and continuously improve a regulatory regime conducive to the development and provision of an affordable, viable, reliable and accessible telecommunications infrastructure and services.