

Vision:

By 2020, the National Telecommunications Commission (NTC) shall be a stronger and more pro-active regulatory agency able to steer the telecommunications sector as a primary engine for national progress and development.